PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

GROWING WITH THE COMMUNITY Welcoming, Engaging and Achieving

We are here to support the academic, social and emotional development of our students to be resilient to the challenges of a rapidly changing society.

It seems hard to believe that it is already the final newsletter for 2014. Carnegie Primary School has continued to grow and prosper in 2014 and we have every reason to be proud of our school and its students. I would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a Happy Christmas and a safe and happy holiday with your family and friends.

I would like to wish our year six students the very best as they leave CPS. May their futures be bright and rewarding and their dreams come true. We also wish any students and their families moving to new schools in 2015 all the best.

On a staffing front, Stephanie Lipson is taking a year's leave to work overseas and travel and intends returning to Carnegie PS in 2016. Dim Budic will commence maternity leave in the first few weeks of the year. Katie McLachlan, Kim Taing, Raechelle Donovan and Ben Hui are finishing their time at Carnegie and we wish them all the best in their respective future endeavours.

We will warmly welcome back Karen Bentata-Grimm in a full time role and Abbey Pomeroy, Nikki Sommerfeld and Alice Dell, all part time next year.

We will also welcome as new full time teachers next year; Amanda Miller, Rebecca Batten, Pippa Ross, Eliza Browne and Alistair Chisholm, all of whom have spent time with us this year in some capacity.

A notice will be distributed to all families with our 2015 staffing overview prior to the end of the school term.

★ SPECIAL THANKS TO ALL

Strong, positive partnerships are pivotal at Carnegie Primary School. Each and every day there is much to be proud of as we work together to ensure a rich and rewarding learning community. Thank you to :

- All the staff for their professionalism and dedication towards our students throughout the year. As we look back on what has once again been a very busy year, we can reflect on many successes in all learning teams and specialist programs. CPS is certainly blessed with such a wonderful team of teachers and support staff.

- Our students for working so well in their learning teams throughout the year. You should be very proud of yourselves throughout many areas of school life. We are proud of the your efforts in developing independence as the year has progressed and particularly proud of the older children's reflection on their learning and commitment to their personal learning goals.

- The School Councillors for their input and support in running our school.

- All members of Parents and Friends for their amazing community building and fundraising efforts throughout 2014. The many, many hours of personal time given by PFA members is much appreciated.

- The parents and members of the school community who have once again supported our school in many positive ways throughout the year.

Special acknowledgement needs to be made to:

- The helpers in classroom programs, excursions and incursions, working bees as well as our junior grades for book bags and literacy assistance. We value your support highly.

- Leesa Needham and Lisa Anastopoulos, our amazing Parents and Friends Committee presidents.

- Susan Harper, our hard working School Council President and all School Councillors. I would also like to particularly acknowledge Lachlan Baird. Lachlan will be leaving our school community at the end of the year as his youngest daughter, Tilly, is leaving CPS. I would like to particularly acknowledge his support of School Council over a number of years.

- Sharon Atkins, Kristen Howell and Donna McNamara for running our uniform shop. Increased enrolments have certainly seen these ladies generously giving many hours of their time each week.

- Kirsten Brooks for overseeing the wonderful messages on our front sign.

- Rosalie Ouslinis for overseeing our second hand uniform sales.

- Rebecca, Amelia, Stephan, Andy, Lili, Leon and Judy for their ongoing passion and support for our instrumental music programs.

YEAR 1 to 5 SHARING AFTERNOON TOMORROW – Wednesday 10th December

As previously advertised, tomorrow we are offering an open afternoon from 3.15 till 4pm for children in Year 1 to 5 to share their classrooms and some of their term's work as the year draws to a close. This is an opportunity for your child to celebrate some of their achievements with you and for parents to come into classrooms for a look around as well as a time for children to talk about some of their learning. We look forward to seeing you there.

CLASSES FOR 2015

The leadership team and more particularly the current classroom teachers have spent many hours recently preparing the makeup of next year's classes. The first criteria is that each child is placed with at least one friend they have chosen from a small list. There are lots of pieces of information and observations that are taken into consideration when placing the children and we ask once again that you support our decisions. We value all our teachers equally and again point out to you how closely our teams work together to take equal responsibility for the outcomes of all students in each grade area. We are very lucky with regards to the quality of our teachers across the board and this should not be taken for granted. The students will be told their placements on the last day of term and have a short session with their new class and teacher. Your support of your child can be quite enhanced by receiving news of their placement with enthusiasm and encouragement.

IMPROVEMENTS TO OUR SCHOOL

As always our school budgets have been diligently spent to ensure the very best learning environment for our students and we can reflect on 2014 and be proud of our achievements. Some of the changes at our school, many quite significant, have included:

- Purchasing of over $40 000 of new furniture and equipment. Some was funded by the government stimulus package but much was purchased from funds raised by our PFA

- Our ongoing commitment to providing a rich and purposeful ICT platform to enhance teaching and learning. Our purchase / lease of 77 new laptops and 30 new iPads, means we now have 4 in every classroom. We have three MacBook laptops to use with iPads, Extra WAPs to upgrade the school's WIFI, 4 interactive whiteboards and projectors for new classrooms and two new data projectors.

- The completion of our tiered seating, outdoor entertaining area. This will be further enhanced with the addition of many of the children's art tiles early in 2015

- Beautification of our grounds including the planting of many trees and the installation of additional outdoor seats to enhance our playground
- Replaced the external awnings on our school hall
- Refurbished our main staff toilets, including the addition of a shower, and repainted the inside of our main student toilets
- Installed four new air conditioners. Three to replace broken units in classrooms and a new unit in the office area
- Ongoing commitment to staff professional development. Our partnership with Lynn Watts (Educational Consultant) has meant a significant financial outlay but the benefits for our students have been immense across all areas of the school
- Purchase in excess of $10 000 worth of literacy and numeracy resources to support the delivery of classroom programs
- Our ever expanding ICT infrastructure and computer notebook program

Many of the extras would not be possible without the amazing support of the school community via our PFA fundraising efforts. We look forward to sharing many positive changes in 2015 to support our students and their learning.

FREE TO A GOOD HOME – STUDENT SIZE TABLES and CHAIRS

We are about to receive new furniture to set up our new classes for 2015 and update some of our older tables and chairs. We have a number of green children's sized tables and chairs that are still in excellent condition. If you could put them to good use, please call into the office. They would be perfect for cubbies, gardens or even as study desks.

THE PARISH OF SAINT ANTHONY'S CHRISTMAS DAY DINNER

Each year the St Anthony's Parish in Glen Huntly host a traditional Christmas Day Dinner for people who will not be celebrating Christmas with family and friends. The dinner, which is for everyone, will be held at midday on Christmas Day in the St Anthony's Hall opposite the church.

If you know anyone who would like to attend, please let them know of this special celebration. There are invitations at our office.

If any of our Carnegie families might like to assist on the day or with donations, please call into the office too as there is a form that outlines how you can assist this very worthy cause. What a lovely way to spread some Christmas cheer to members of our community!

LAST DAY OF TERM & HOLIDAY BREAK

Term 4 ends on Friday, 19th December at 1.30pm. There will be a final assembly at 1.00pm on this day so we can farewell those leaving us.

School commences for year 1 to 6 students on Friday 30th January 2015. We are looking forward to seeing everyone back as we commence another great year at Carnegie Primary School. Prep students commence on Monday, 2nd February.

WORDS OF WISDOM – Being happy doesn't mean everything is perfect. It means you've decided to look beyond the imperfections if needed.

CHANGES TO THE EDUCATION MAINTENANCE ALLOWANCE 2015

The final payment for the 2014 EMA was made in August 2014.

From 1 January 2015, parents will not be able to apply for the Education maintenance Allowance.

The end of the EMA direct payments to parents will not affect any other payment which parents may be receiving such as the Schoolkids Bonus, which is provided directly to eligible parents to assist with education costs.

For more information, see: SchoolKids Bonus (<https://www.dss.gov.au/our-responsibilities/families-and-children/benefits-payments/schookids-bonus>)

The SchoolKids Bonus will continue until the end of 2016. This will allow families time to adjust to the change. The last instalment will be paid in July 2016. An income test will also apply to the SchoolKids Bonus starting on 1 January 2015.

Help your child conquer self-consciousness – Parenting Ideas by Michael Grose

Self-consciousness can make school concerts and end of year events daunting for some students. Here are some ideas to help. Self-consciousness can be awful. It's the feeling you get that everyone is looking at you. Self-consciousness can come and go. Often eldest boys, when in early primary school, are extremely shy and self-conscious. It can make them do silly things. Then self-consciousness revisits later in early adolescence for many boys. Early teen girls often suffer from it, particularly if they are early or late maturers.

Some kids just hate to do anything in public for fear of being noticed and perhaps laughed at. They think, quite wrongly, that everyone is looking at them. The truth of the matter is that most people aren't looking at them. If they are performing in a school concert most adults have eyes only for their children. They won't really take too much notice of any other children, unless of course, they fluff their lines badly or muck-up big time.

However logical you may be, self-consciousness can still hold many kids back. Here are some ideas to help your child or young person conquer self-consciousness:

- 1. Help them prepare for public performance. They can practise a talk or even rehearse an opening line to help them break the ice in social situations. Practice leads to competence, which often alleviates self-consciousness.
- 2. Use baby steps in social situations. If they feel uncomfortable meeting a whole bunch of new people, then they can just meet one new friend at a party, rather than try to meet too many people, which can be overwhelming.
- 3. Practise strong self-talk. Self-conscious kids often have atrocious self-talk. They say everyone is watching them enter a room, when the reality is quite different. Help them develop some realistic and more assertive messages about themselves. "It will be fun going on stage at the concert with my friends" is far more helpful than "Everyone will be staring at me" or "What if I muck up?"
- 4. Catch kids being brave. What you focus on expands so make sure you highlight kids being brave and overcoming possibly embarrassing situations. Also, let them know that even though they may have stumbled or fluffed a line or two the room didn't cave in. It wasn't so bad.
- 5. Breathe in, breathe out. Some children and young people can be so debilitated by their self-consciousness that they work themselves into a frenzy with worry. Deep breathing where they count to 3 breathing in, but count to 6 when breathing out will help kids regain calm, control and hopefully perspective. Self-consciousness is something that many adults suffer from too, so these ideas may hold true for you. It may not be something we can completely eradicate but it is something we all can learn to control so it doesn't stop us, or our kids, doing what we want to do.

Teacher Talk with.... Miss Kennedy

For the final newsletter of the year we chat to 4A's Miss Kennedy.
This week Maks A from Grade 6 took Miss Kennedy's portrait

How long have you been teaching at CPS?

Six and a half fabulous years. The grade 6s this year are the first group of students that I've ever seen in a school go from prep right through to grade 6 which has been pretty cool.

You are originally from the land of the long white cloud, New Zealand. How long have you been in Australia?

I've been here this time for 7 years but I did do a year here in 2002, before heading over to South Korea and London to teach and live for 5 years.

Do you think you'll ever go back to live in New Zealand, or is Australia your home now?

I did think for a long time that I would one day go back to NZ but at this stage I can't see it happening in the near future. I absolutely love living in Melbourne and totally now call it my home. However, that doesn't mean I've ever stopped supporting the All Blacks or any other NZ team playing against Australia!!

On footy colours day you always proudly march in your All Blacks shirt. Have you embraced AFL at all after living in Australia?

Yes I have embraced AFL, and have always proudly supported Hawthorn. This support came from living in Kew/Hawthorn area when I first arrived many years ago. I also had to embrace AFL quickly in the first few weeks at Carnegie when I was teaching P.E. The first sport on the planner I was following was footy. I actually think the grade 5/6s taught me more about footy than I taught them over those few weeks.

When you were young, what was your favourite pastime?

I was a kid that tried everything!! Through my school days I played volleyball, netball, cricket, tennis, badminton and spent 5 years playing canoe polo. I was on the school snow skiing team, did jazz dancing for 8 years and was part of a local athletics club. I even tried some cultural pastimes which included, playing the keyboard and doing pottery/ceramics. I have also been fishing and water skiing since I was six years old at a family beach holiday house (the bach as we call it in NZ) I was an extremely active kid!!!

(Phew! I'm exhausted just reading that-Ed.)

Did you ever get into mischief as a kid?

I was a pretty good kid at school but I think it was only because I got in big trouble over one incident in my prep year. I had a fight with a boy in my class over a book, we both wanted it and proceeded to pull each end of the book and ripped it clean in half. I had clearly not learnt how to share by that stage in my life. We got in to heaps of trouble and were sent to the principal's office. He was extremely mad with both of us and I got banned from the library for a week. I remember being scared of doing anything wrong after that and from that day onwards decided to be a good student.

If you were able to go back and give yourself as 10-year-old advice, what would it be?

Make sure you take every opportunity to speak in front of an audience, whether it's for a presentation, a debate or sharing your work. I think the more public speaking the better. Also try to get as many opportunities to speak on the microphone at assemblies. I just wish I had done more public speaking because I never felt that confident at university.

Do you have any hidden talents, which no one knows about?

Most of the students I've taught would probably know my hidden talents which are, calligraphy writing, knuckle bones and the fact that I can beat anyone in a rubiks race game (not a rubiks cube but similar). No one in my family or any of my friends have ever been able to beat me.

If you could have dinner with 3 famous people from the past or present, who would they be?

Bruce Willis, he's been an actor who I've loved since I was young, Michael Jordan and Billy T James, a NZ comedian who was the funniest man I ever watched.

If you were left to live on a desert island-what 3 things would you choose to take with you?

- A solar charged e-reader loaded with at least 100 of my favourite books
- a creative chef (hopefully he or she is good company too!)
- my sunglasses

If there was one thing you could make sure your students learnt from you, what would it be?

Well it definitely wouldn't be my accent....probably to always be optimistic and live life to the fullest by taking up every opportunity to see the world like I do. But on a more school note, that maths is fun, learning your times tables and reading every night is important!!

Miss Kennedy in 30 Seconds...
